Abilities

Sporty - Str+3

This gives a character a bonus to all sport-related activities, like running, throwing, hitting, or catching.

Strong Willed - Hea+5

It takes a lot to bully this character and will rarely give up during a stare-down. Often, when another character tries to bully them, they may giggle or act confused. Make this roll to see if the character's will breaks when confronted by an aggressor.

Immovable - Hea+3

This helps characters to stand their ground when someone is charging at them.

Fearless - Sma+Id6

This helps a character to muster up the extra courage needed to get them through a situation.

Outdoorsey - Sma+3

This works when a character is doing any camping activities or anytime they are "roughing it" out in the wilderness.

Intuition - Sma+Id6

This can help a character to see if they have any bad feelings about a situation or a person (called "foreboding").

Bottomless Stomach - Hea+1

The character can eat a lot of food, and not get sick

Background Concept—

Football player (plays nose tackle); tall, blond, and huge with a warm, puppy-dog smile on his face most of the time. Also member of Nature Scouts (the uniforms rarely fits him). Stable, traditional family life—Mom stays at home and Dad is former college football star who owns & operates a used car dealership. Has secret crush on Andrea, whom he rescued from bullies in 6th grade. Will protect anyone whom Andrea feels is her friend ("Her friends are my friends, too!"). Gets along with just about anyone. He's very, very slow to anger, but when he gets to his saturation point, Clutch will get a little scary, like The Hulk.
