Background Concept—

Former lab chimp named Bingo who is now imbued with the spirit of a dead pirate captain (more specifically, a privateer for the budding US Navy of the mid-1700's). Can't remember his name as a pirate, so the kids gave him his new name. Often seems cranky towards the kids, but likes them very much—especially Andrea, who rescued him from the lab, and Clutch, who tries to protect her. Loves bananas, hates stuffy British seamen, and wants to own a parrot one day.
